Profit is a key force in the industry, due to the costly and risky nature of filmmaking many films have large cost overruns, an example being Kevin Costners Waterworld. Yet many filmmakers strive to create works of lasting social significance. The Academy Awards also known as the Oscars are the most prominent film awards in the United States, providing recognition each year to films, based on their artistic merits. There is also a large industry for educational and instructional films made in lieu of or in addition to lectures and texts. Revenue in the industry is sometimes volatile due to the reliance on blockbuster films released in movie theaters. The rise of alternative home entertainment has raised questions about the future of the cinema industry, and Hollywood employment has become less reliable, particularly for medium and low-budget films.6
